It then point out that [VC] armed activities are satisfactory, whereas achievements in the military proselyting and political fields leave much to be desired. Document emphasizes political struggles by prescribing that appropriate motivation be directed at various classes of the population to promote demonstrations, strikes and an "Armed Campaign" from 30 Dec 67 to 15 Jan 68. Key elements for this campaign should be activated prior to 10 Jan 68. To support the Insurrection movement, document orders B2 and H3 (unhusked rice) depots to prepare necessary rice supply. To facilitate transportation, 160 civilian laborers would be re-enlisted along with recruitment of combatants and Assault Youth. The document further adds that, on Insurrection Day, while all the participants "take to the street", Village Party Committee members, Chapter Party Committee members and one Security agent should remain at the place of rendezvous. (U) CDEC COMMENT: No Further Significant Information.	3 Jan 68 BS884324 1/20 Inf, 11th Inf Bde, Americal Div Received CDEC: 13 Jan 68 1 copy I Corps
